

2019 Australian Bicycle Summit - Training the Advocate

'smart tech and active transport, towards zero'

Provisional Program – Tuesday, 14 May 2019

The following program for the Training the Advocate workshop is current at 7 March 2019 and will be updated progressively as details are confirmed. See here for the latest information.

Workshop Venue: Lendlease, 1 Melbourne Quarter, Docklands

9:00	Welcome and introduction to the Advocacy Workshop, agenda and outcomes
9:10	Presentation: Principles for success, Lobbying do's and don't's, current political environment
9:40	Presentation: Maximising your impact with politicians, with Q&A
10:10	Presentation: Maximising your impact with local councils, with Q&A
10:40	MORNING TEA
11:10	Theory into practice: Case study presentation – the power of the collective voice
11:30	Theory into practice: Facilitated expert panel discussion and Q&A session Key advocacy challenges for the sector in 2019 Participant questions to panel on local advocacy related questions/issues Confirmed panellists: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Amanda Stevens, 3-term Mayor, City of Port Phillip2. Myfanwy Lawrence, Active Transport Integration Manager, Transport for NSW3. Stephen Hodge, Director – National Advocacy, We Ride Australia
12:25	Workshop wrap, guidance/tips document

Principal Partner - the 2019 Australian Bicycle Summit and Cycling Luminaries Awards are proudly supported by the Transport Accident Commission

